Hearing Minutes

Assistant Attorney General John Patterson called Executive Director Bernie Profato to testify in the hearing involving Promoter Andrew Williams and an incident that occurred on November 1, 2008 at the Duke Energy Center.

Executive Director Profato was sworn in to testify. He discussed the problems with Andrew Williams in stated the problem is that Mr. Williams changed bouts without permission of the Commission.

Assistant Attorney General Patterson informed the Board that we have negotiated an agreement of an adjudication order that has been signed by the parties. He asked the Board to approve the agreement as follows:

Andrew Williams promoter's license is suspended for 90 days with the suspension being held in abeyance, the condition of being temporarily set aside, on the condition there be no same or similar violations prior to the renewal of Andrew Williams' promoter's license on March 21, 2009. If there are no same or similar violations prior to the renewal of Andrew Williams' promoter's license on March 21, 2009 the suspension will be considered served.

Michael Chase moved to approve the agreement. Commissioner John Konstantinos seconded the motion, and it was unanimously approved.
